

Local Network Event Volunteer

Our 50 Local Networks operate across the UK bringing local people affected by Crohn's and Colitis together and raising awareness of the conditions with members of the public. From educational talks to social events, we help give people the comfort and confidence to live freer and fuller lives.

Local Network Event Volunteers are vital in making these events a success, helping on the day to support the organising team in delivering the best possible experience for our supporters.

What this role involves:

- Supporting events organised by a Crohn's & Colitis UK Local Network on the day of the event
- Working alongside other volunteers to make events a success
- Helping supporters of the charity to get the most out of the event they are attending

Specific tasks may include:

- Manning an information tent at a fair or fun day
- Helping set up marquees and tables
- Acting as a route marshal on a sponsored walk
- Serving drinks at an information evening
- Directing people to the right areas for meetings and workshops

Who we are looking for:

- Hard-working team players who embrace the opportunity to work with a new group of people
- People who are flexible and willing to do what it takes for each event to be a success
- Quick learners who are good under pressure and both take direction and use their initiative

What we can offer you:

- A great addition to your CV
- An exciting range of events to support and be a part of
- New experiences within a passionate, enthusiastic team
- An insight into Third Sector working and events
- A chance to meet people from all walks of life and give back to your community by making a difference to the lives of people with lifelong illness
