

Big Summer Skip Challenge 2025 - Event Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions apply to the Big Summer Skip Challenge organised by Crohn's & Colitis UK.

REGISTRATION

1. Registration for the Big Summer Skip Challenge is free. If you are unable to take part in the event after completing your registration, no refund will be due.
2. The closing date for registration is the 18th of August 2025.
3. Participants must register via the Facebook registration form to be officially registered for the Big Summer Skip
4. Participants must register individually to receive a FREE branded skipping rope. Unfortunately, we have a very limited stock of ropes and will only initially be able to supply one per registered fundraiser. Max 2 per family.
5. Participants who have registered for three or more challenges without engaging in fundraising activities will not be eligible to receive any incentives.
6. Registered Individuals will not be able to request more than 1 skipping rope as part of this promotion. If an individual applies to the Event more than once, they will only receive 1 skipping rope.
7. You must be aged 18 or over to register for this event.
8. We can only ship skipping ropes to addresses within the United Kingdom. Unfortunately, we are unable to ship internationally due to high postage costs.
9. Crohn's & Colitis UK is not responsible for technical faults, errors, or crashes during the online registration process.

SAFETY

1. Participants taking part in the Big Summer Skip do so entirely at their own risk and are responsible for selecting manageable jumps to complete throughout the month.
2. By submitting a Registration Form the participant confirms that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, they are healthy and fit to take part in the Event, understand and have considered and evaluated the nature, scope and extent of the risks involved, and have voluntarily and freely chosen to participate in the Event entirely at their own risk.
3. Crohn's & Colitis UK understands that people of all levels of fitness are keen to support. Participants must acknowledge that participation in the Event involves physical activities and inherent risks and dangers of accidents, personal and bodily injury (including death) and property loss or damage. If they have any medical conditions that could be adversely affected by exercise, particularly a heart condition, or if they are in any doubt about their health, they must get clearance from their doctor before participating.
4. Crohn's & Colitis UK will not be held accountable for any illness or injury sustained while participating in this event.
5. It is advisable that participants have safe and appropriate equipment whilst participating in this event
6. It is strongly advised that all participants wear appropriate clothing and footwear and stay hydrated whilst participating.

7. Crohn's & Colitis UK does not provide any insurance, whether life or medical or liability, for any illness, accident, injury, death, loss and/ or damage that may arise in connection with the participation in the Event. Participants are advised to obtain such insurance themselves if required or desired.

FUNDRAISING

1. All funds raised by participants taking part in the big Summer Skip are raised for the sole purpose of benefiting Crohn's & Colitis UK and those who receive the support from the services provided.
2. Participants are encouraged to use their Facebook Fundraising page or personal fundraising page to collect sponsorship for this event.
3. We welcome and encourage users to customise messages on fundraising pages and to leave comments when making donations, however, Crohn's & Colitis UK is not responsible for the content of any fundraising page created for this event.
4. The Fundraising Regulator encourages all fundraisers to be familiar with the Online Fundraising Code of Practice

GIFT AID

1. Please ask all those who sponsor you to tick the Gift Aid box if eligible. Gift Aid increases the value of individual donations and sponsorship by 25p for every £1 donated at no extra cost to the donor. This means even more money goes to Crohn's & Colitis UK.
2. If you are a UK taxpayer, you are encouraged to claim Gift Aid when donating your own money to your fundraising page by ticking the Gift Aid declaration if eligible.
3. If you pay in money to your fundraising other than money you are donating to Crohn's & Colitis UK personally (e.g. Cash from collections, family members, ticket sales and any activity where you get something in return for your money) you cannot claim Gift Aid.

PERSONAL DATA

1. We advise users to avoid posting personal information about themselves or someone else (e.g. addresses, telephone numbers) when writing on a fundraising page.
2. All personal data that you are asked to provide when setting up a fundraising page and/or making a donation will be handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy.
3. We will also use your personal details for the purpose of sending you communications about the event .

Participants are responsible for reading the terms and conditions and privacy policy for all third-party platforms including Facebook.
